Mayor Westcamp, Members of Council & Staff

- I am pleased to announce that the Madison Township Fire Department has hired an Assistant Chief. Chas Adams will begin his new position on June 22nd. His main area of responsibility will be oversight of Fire Department Operations. Mr. Adams comes to us having served 18 years with the Franklin Township Fire Department and has spent the last four years as their Assistant Chief. I look forward to getting Chief Adams out to meet the various department heads, staff and council members as soon as things begin to open up again.
