REPORT TO:

MAYOR LANCE WESTCAMP AND THE CITY OF GROVEPORT COUNCIL

October 2013

From the Chief:

Although the calendar appeared light, Apple Butter Days and Halloween kept us busy. Gave away 800 yard sticks (Behavior modification units) during the Apple Butter Days. Seemed to be one of the busiest yet!

Halloween was a bit different. At first cancellation was a possibility but I am glad it was not. Officers cooked hotdogs and we gave them away that night. Thanks to Patty Storts for helping us out!! She wrapped and handed out dogs even though she had other commitments – so – KUDOS to Patty.

In addition to classes I taught, I had the opportunity to represent the City of Groveport at PTSD conference. I will be the December Safety Meeting presenter for BWC .

Officer community involvement; continuing education and training:

Officer Chad Rosser began his first full time police officer career.
Reserve Officer Clark Manning also began his reserve position.
Classes for officers included Leadership, and SUV Operations classes

Vacation hours used: 146

Sick time used: 16.5
