Finance Director Jeff Green stated the tax budgets were formerly used to set the amounts and rates for local tax levies. Most counties in Ohio no longer require this legislation. Franklin County is one of two counties that have not discontinued the requirement. In a few months legislation will follow establishing those amounts and rates for local tax levies. This legislation is done every year and does not, in any way, represent the City's budget. The City's budget process will start in August. It is his understanding that most of the time once this resolution goes to the County it is filed away and not really used.

Clerk of Council Ross read by title Resolution No. 18-001.
