Senior Center Council Report February 2025

February Events & Activities at the Senior Center

Walking group report:

Our new walking group, Wise Movers, has doubled in size! From January to February, our Wise Movers walking group has doubled in size. Members are tracking their miles and already starting to feel the good effects of walking on a regular basis.

Valentine month celebrations:

Since February is Valentines month, we celebrated with two Valentine theme events. Our Valentine lunch was sponsored by Brookdale Senior Living and Embassy of Pickerington. Our lunch theme was “We love you to Pizzas!”. We had the room decorated and games to play along with...you guessed it...PIZZA! Lunch was free to our members thanks to Brookdale and Embassy.

Our second February celebration was a Valentine themed concert and dance. The live band was our very own “Danny B. Goode” band. Attendees enjoyed 2 hours of wonderful classic rock music and lots of dancing. Over 50 people were in attendance.

Armchair Travel...History

For 2025 we are changing up our Armchair Travel program by focusing on traveling to events in history. In January we traveled back to World War I. Warren Motts from Motts Military Museum was our guest speaker. We're looking forward to learning more about history at the Groveport Senior Center.
