Statistics

See attached for December 2015.

December Maintenance Day

The full-time staff would like to thank Brian Morse (Facility Maintenance) and a number of part-time staff members for their assistance during the Dec. 4 Maintenance Day.

Gym Floor Work

The floors in both gymnasiums were deep cleaned and a contractor applied 2 coats of water based clear-coat to the floor in December. Pickleball court lines were also painted in the East Gym, giving us 3 courts to use. Staff had been taping the lines for the courts up to this point. The general public has been very appreciative regarding the work on the floor.

Men's Basketball League

The Men's Winter Basketball League began on December 13 and will tentatively play thru early-mid March. The 8 team league plays on Sunday evenings, after the facility closes for the evening. Games are played at 6 pm, 7 pm, 8 pm and 9 pm. By moving the league to Sunday evenings, more drop-in play time is available in the gyms on Sundays.

Roof Project

With the exception of some punch list items that need to be addressed, the GRC Roof Project is complete. As a result of the newly installed insulation above the exterior windows at the 1st floor fitness center and 2nd floor track (directly above the fitness center), the facility is now experiencing heavy condensation on the windows, especially on the 2nd floor. Staff is looking at possible solutions.

Recreation Coordinator resigns

Vance Casebolt (Recreation Coordinator) has resigned his position. His last day on the job is January 18. Vance has accepted a Guard position with the State of Ohio at a Juvenile Correctional Facility in Circleville, OH. Staff wishes Vance the best of luck in his new position. The department will be looking to fill the Recreation Coordinator position in the near future. In the meantime, questions regarding youth sports, general programming and special events should be directed to either Director Lund or Sports/Fitness Manager Bernard-Ferrell.

Happy New You

Our annual Happy New You pass promotion is underway.

Youth Basketball League

In the spring of 2015, Parks & Rec. Dept. Staff met with representatives from the Groveport-Madison School District (Steve Petros, Scott Stevens & Curt Brogan) to discuss the future of the GPRD Youth Basketball Program. This meeting was initiated by the Groveport Parks & Rec. Dept. in hopes of increasing participation numbers in the 3rd thru 6th Grade Programs.

Our objectives were as follows:

- Increase the number of children in the youth basketball program. We will strive to: 1). Provide a fun experience for every player regardless of skill level, 2). Promote comparable playing time, 3). Develop team unity and friendships, 4). Teach players the fundamentals of the game to the best of the coaches' ability, 5). Promote good sportsmanship.
- Enable girls to play against girls and boys to play against boys (separate divisions for boys and girls).
- Further foster a positive relationship with the Groveport-Madison Schools and other area schools.
- Offer an opportunity for participants to play basketball with their classmates. By doing so, this may help to build a sense of school pride. In the past, participants were evaluated and then placed on teams in an effort to achieve some balanced talent amongst the teams.
- Increase the number of pre-season practices for each team in an effort to better prepare the participants for game play.
- Teams will practice at their local Elementary or Middle School Gym, making it easier for parents to transport their children to practice. In addition, this will free up more drop-in gym time at the Recreation Center for all age groups. In the past, teams practiced at the Groveport Recreation Center on weekday evenings and Sunday evenings (Note: Sunday evening practices took place after the building was closed).
- Offer a youth basketball program as a winter sport. In the past, due to lack of gym practice space at the Groveport Recreation Center, the 3rd – 4th Grade program has been playing in late October thru early/mid-January. This schedule did not permit much of a break for kids playing fall soccer.

The Groveport-Madison School District fully supported our objectives and supported our marketing and promotion efforts.

Unfortunately, despite our efforts and the efforts of the school district, the program did not grow. The 3rd – 4th Grade League has 4 teams and the 5th – 6th Grade League has 6 teams. Leagues are co-ed. Saturday games began on 1/16 and will continue thru 3/5. Staff will survey parents at the end of the season to measure the success of the changes made.
