TO: MAYOR LANCE WESTCAMP AND THE CITY OF GROVEPORT COUNCIL

May 2014

From the Chief:

Sgt. Short and I provided a self-defense course at the Groveport recreation center. 24 students attended and it was very well received. I also attended the Ohio Association Chiefs of Police District meeting, which we hosted. Glad to say they were impressed with our new facility.

Capt. Blevins and I attended the Police Executive Leadership Course graduation ceremony for Sgt. Brian Thompson. This is an intense 3 month program preparing supervisors to become leaders in their respective agencies. He joins myself and Sgt. Short as alumni of PELC.

The Annual Rickenbacker Emergency plan meeting was held at Rickenbacker AF base.

Officer community involvement; continuing education and training:

Officer Clites- Meader attended the annual officer memorial service in London, Ohio.

Courses were attended by staff include: First Line Supervision, Procedural Justice
The department's goal is to have every officer attend a supervision school. Each officer and supervisor will attend those course that allow them to be able to move up to the next level when the time arrives.

All officers were certified in first aid and CPR by one of our own members, Ofc. Goodwin during the month of May.

Ofc. Bell and Capt. Blevins coordinated staff photos, which will soon be ready.
