Senior Center Council Report January 2023

Membership

2023 membership is going well. At the end of January, we have 329 new and renewing members!

Beginner Line Dance Class

In January we started a new program/class! Our line dance instructor Judith Beery started a beginner line dance class on Fridays. The class is free of charge for members of the center.

Armchair Travel

At this month's Armchair travel, we changed it up a bit...we are traveling to places in the United States. We began with the state of Hawaii. We sampled a popular Hawaiian food...Spam kabobs with pineapple. We donned our leighs and had a great "trip" to the islands. (30 members attended)

First Pot-Luck

In January we had our first pot-luck lunch since before the pandemic. These folks can cook!! We had a great variety of main dishes, sides and desserts...of course.

Game Night & Art Night

We have two evening programs at the Groveport Senior Center each month. We have a game night that continues to be popular and well attended and we have an art night that is also very popular. In January the art class was watercolor Valentines cards. Each participant got to paint 4 different designs. The class was taught by one of our very creative members, Vera Collier.
