Senior Center Council Report March 2022

March brought the “luck of the Irish” to the Senior Center. Our weekly activity counts are up, we added an activity, and we welcomed 24 new members to the Senior Center in March.

March 17th, St. Patrick’s Day Lunch: Our weekly Thursday lunch fell on St. Patrick’s Day! We served an Irish themed lunch of Shepard’s Pie, green punch and a pistachio green parfait for desert. Our guests of honor where the Mayor Lance Westcamp, Administrator BJ King and Asst. Adminstrator Jason Carr.

March 17th, Bingo: Following our theme lunch on the St. Patrick’s Day, members enjoyed a Bingo party sponsored by Humana. This event is free of charge to the members. The sponsor brings lots of great prizes for the winners & treat bags for everyone.

Rec Center “Young at Heart” event follow up: In February we partnered with the Groveport Rec Center and the Silver Sneaker program to showcase classes that are available to our senior members. We’re glad to report that 8 of our Senior Center members are now attending at least one of the Silver Sneaker classes on a regular weekly basis! In fact, the class had to be moved to the gym due to it’s increased size! Staying physically active is vital as we age and we are so pleased to partner with the Groveport Recreation Center to offer great options for Seniors!
