Art Gallery

Husband and wife team Myriam Solomon and Philip Franta present an eclectic exhibit of photography, pastel paintings and jewelry in the January exhibit "Light & Texture." Pictured, an image from a Paris street vendor.

February Pet Collection:

Donations of blankets, pet food, leashes, collars and toys will all be accepted at Town Hall in February. All pet donations support local animal rescue groups.

Project Linus Blanketeers

The community is invited to make quilt squares for the creation of blankets to comfort children in need on Tuesday, January 28 at 7 pm. Project Linus is a national non-profit organization which provides homemade blankets which have been made by adults and children from all walks of life and many different sources.

Programs:

- * Rubber Band Bracelet Bash: The hottest craze among kids is the creation of rubber band bracelets. Children are invited to bring their own looms or use one of Town Hall's on Tuesday, January 21 at 7 pm. The program is free but registration is required.
- Sunday Success: Students age 5 – 10 can receive free tutoring on reading skills every Sunday afternoon. Children are asked to bring homework, a book, or a project. By appointment only. Parents must stay with children under age 9.
- Masking Tape Painting: On Wednesday, January 29 at 7 pm, children age 3 – 10 will create a work of art by using paint and masking tape. Supplies included.
- Preschool Playgroup: Starting in January, Preschool Programs will be offered free of charge for educational programming on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, Movement and Music on Thursdays, and Preschool Crafts on Fridays.
- Super Hero Party: Super heroes ages 3 – 10 can wear their favorite costume and bring an adult sidekick to Town Hall on Sunday, February 9 from 2 – 4 pm for super adventures, crafts, food and fun. $5 per person. Register.
