City Administrator Report to Council
BJ King, City Administrator
October 25, 2021

Legislation

- Ord. 2021-053 – Annual donation to Motts Military Museum
Approval of this legislation would authorize another 5 year commitment for an annual donation to Motts Military Museum. The proposed 2022 budget included the funding ($25,000) for this donation. The Motts Military Museum is a tremendous asset for the community as it serves as a tourist destination. This ordinance should be referred to the November Committee of the Whole meeting.
- Ord. 2021-054 – Annual contract for Franklin County Public Health Services
This ordinance is a housekeeping measure for the annual contract for services provided by the Franklin County Health Department. The term for this agreement is January 1, 2022 until December 31, 2022. This ordinance should be referred to the November Committee of the Whole meeting.
- Ord. 2021-055 - Increase to golf rates
Approval of this ordinance would increase greens fees and cart rental rates at the golf course. The exhibit attached to the ordinance outlines the proposed new rates. This ordinance should be referred to the November Committee of the Whole meeting.
- Ord. 2021-056 – Outdoor Aquatics amended rates
This legislation proposes increases to the non-resident rate for the outdoor aquatics centers. The exhibit attached to the ordinance outlines the proposed increases. This ordinance should be referred to the November Committee of the Whole meeting.
- Ord. 2021-057 – Annual Senior Options Grant
This legislation relates to the annual Senior Options Grant that the City submits. The grant submittal deadline is November 16th, so there is a request to pass this legislation as an emergency.
