Senior Center Council Report January 2022

Membership renewal began in December and we have renewed and welcomed 275 members as of 1-31-22.

Lock 22 Coffee hour and Yarn Circle: On Wednesday mornings we have a coffee and donuts social hour. In January we added a Yarn Circle group. This is a group of folks that like to crochet or knit or would like to learn how to knit or crochet. The group is enjoying working on projects, learning new skills and spending time together.

Book Club: The Groveport Senior Center has it's very own Book Club. The group reads one book a month and meets to talk about the book at the Senior Center on the second Tuesday of each month. The group takes advantage of our public library system for choosing and reserving books. The Center has a nice collection of books available to borrow.

Armchair Travel: Armchair Travel in January took us on a virtual trip to Australia. Members watched an informative video about the country, shared their own experiences and tried food from Australia. Our partners from the Ashford on Broad Senior Living sponsor this event monthly. They bring all the educational materials and their chef prepares the food from the country. In January, we got to try KANGAROO sausage!
