for Monday, June 18, 2018

Best Municipal Pool

The Groveport Aquatic Center was named Best Municipal Pool by reader of Columbus Parent Magazine for the third straight year. Runner-Ups are Highlands Park Aquatic Center (Westerville) and The Big Splash (Grove City).

Another SilverSneakers-like Program

Beginning July 1, Optum Fitness Advantage from United HealthCare will be accepted at the Groveport Recreation Center. Persons (65 years of age or older) will qualify for a complimentary GRC membership if they have this insurance plan. Unlike SilverSneakers, this plan does not cover any classes. The City is reimbursed for each person's visits on a monthly basis after visits are reported to the contracted company.

Aquatics Staff

As of 6/13/18, we have a combination of 68 lifeguards, head lifeguards and assistant managers. A handful of those 68 are still in the process of completing their necessary forms so that they can begin working. Our part-time staff are from all over central-Ohio, including Groveport, Amanda, Pickerington, Reynoldsburg, Canal Winchester, Ashville, Lancaster, Circleville, Columbus, Lithopolis, Obetz, Carroll, & South Bloomfield.

Senior Center Member Activity Survey

Attached are the Results of the Senior Center Member Survey. Unfortunately, only 19 of the 330 surveys distributed were returned, which is a return rate of 5.76%.

Senior Center Survey

Director Lund has sent out a lengthy survey to other central Ohio Senior Centers and will share the results with Council when completed.

Resignation

Our ever-spunky and smiling Clerk is heading south. Nichole Butler and her husband have decided to pick up their central-Ohio roots and head to the great state of Florida. Nichole has been a member of our staff since April of 2016. According to Kyle Lund (Recreation Director), "with her outgoing personality, she fit in right away with both the part-time and full-time staff. Her knowledge of front desk operations, work ethic, quick wit and willing to do whatever it takes attitude will be greatly missed. She will be success at whatever she choses to do in Florida. We wish Nichole all the best with her new adventures." Nichole's last day with the City of Groveport is scheduled for July 11. If you get a chance, please stop by the front desk and wish her well. The position has been advertised internally and externally.

Please feel free to share any other activities or comments below:

I have felt so welcome from the first time I came and Deb has involved us all in quality time spent here. She does a great job with all of us old people.

Instructions on playing cards, corn hole, dominoes, pool, shuffleboard, ping pong, cooking, knitting. Evening activities.

I have belonged to the Groveport SC for years and I have been an officer in the past and I appreciate all of Deb's hard work for us. I enjoy coming and have always felt welcome.

Would like to have how to classes on knitting (something simple like a scarf). Instructions on how to knit. Also instruction on how to play pool. Card games - Poker (no betting, use chips). No different than current Bingo games, Summer evening activities. Picnic (lunch) in a park. Wine & cheese tour.

Deb does an excellent job as director. It is a difficult job to plan and prepare activities.

The best thing going for us now, is our Coordinator Deb! She has been a wonderful asset and has been with us for a long time now. She knows everyone's names. She is very friendly to us all. She does a great job and is always available to meet & talk with us. She has a great $2 lunch for us and can keep the expenses down. I just love her! Cannot say enough good things about her.
