GROVEPORT

JANUARY 2022

Mayor Westcamp, Members of Council & Staff

- On behalf of Madison Township, I would like to express our deepest condolences in the passing of Police Chief Ralph Portier. Chief was an extraordinary person and an incredible leader. I was privileged and honored to have an opportunity to work with him and learn from him in the short time I knew him. His passion, drive, humanity, and leadership were second to none, and anyone that worked alongside him or was privileged to take any of his classes got to experience this firsthand.
- I want to thank Tom Walker and the City of Groveport for their generosity in allowing Madison Township to borrow three golf carts for the Santa Parade. Mr. Walker was a pleasure to work with, and his willingness to meet our needs did not go unnoticed.
- We are currently experiencing some issues with the new preemption systems installed on Main St. These are not the only intersections we are having problems with, as we are experiencing similar interoperability at some of the Canal Winchester intersections. We have reached out to a local vendor to have them come in and assess the situation. In addition, we are working with Mr. Strayer and Mr. Farst, keeping them updated on the situation.
