February Events & Activities at the Senior Center

Books! Books! Books!

The Groveport Senior Center has a BOOK CLUB! Book club chooses a book and meets once a month to talk about the book and chat about life. The Center also has a small library, complete with our own librarian. Members can “borrow” books anytime. Our rule is...if you bring the book back, that’s great. If you don’t, that’s fine too. Our librarian organizes the many donated books that we receive, dates them with the date they are shelved, rotates the books on the shelves and donates the “old” selections that have been on the shelf for a while. All members are welcome to join the club that meets the second Tuesday of each month at 1:00.

Yarn Circle

Every Wednesday morning at 10:00, a group of gals meet to hang out with each other and make beautiful things out of yarn! Some knit. Some Crochet. They all have a great time. Some the items made are sold in our showcase located in the entryway of the Center. Proceeds benefit the Groveport Senior Citizens Inc. non-profit organization.
