REPORT TO: MAYOR LANCE WESTCAMP AND THE CITY OF GROVEPORT COUNCIL

January 2018

Chief's and Officers' activities:

- Met with two Veterans regarding PTSD and Public Safety
- Coffee with a Cop – met with a number of Groveport and Madison Township residents
- Attended Franklin County Chiefs Association meeting
- Retirement gathering for Ofc. Gary York – as he heads to Madison Township as their new Chief
- Worked with HR to fine tune the hiring process to replace two officers who have left

News on the officers - Schools/Training:

- New work schedule has been posted.
- No training was scheduled during January.
- In the last three weeks of January, we were bombarded by a “wolf hybrid” running throughout the city. We fielded a number of complaints daily and found the last animal on Wednesday, the 31st. It was captured without incident, thanks to Franklin County Animal Control. It is my understanding that at least three K-9's were shot in the Columbus/Madison Township area. There has been no absolute confirmation from the Animal Control staff, the Department of Agriculture or the Ohio Department of Natural Resources that any wolf existed. Ohio does not have a wolf population.
- We spent nearly 30 hours on these calls alone.
