VI. Business of Guests

A. Presentation - "We're Changing How We Do Business" Jeff Green, Stephen Moore and Marsha Hall

Finance Director Green and Chief Building Official Moore presented Council with "We're Changing How We Do Business". The City is looking at the development process from start to finish in order to find ways to streamline the development process and become more customer friendly to new businesses wanting to locate in the City, improve on customer service with new and established businesses and create a "Development Handbook" to provide potential businesses with an overview of Groveport's zoning and permitting processes. Administrator Hall stated it is a continuing process, there are short term items and long term items to address. Plans are to develop a survey for feedback from businesses and people who have used the City's services and marketing the new way of business to get the word out to the developers, business owners and property owners who will be working with the City.
