

Senior Center Council Report March 2024

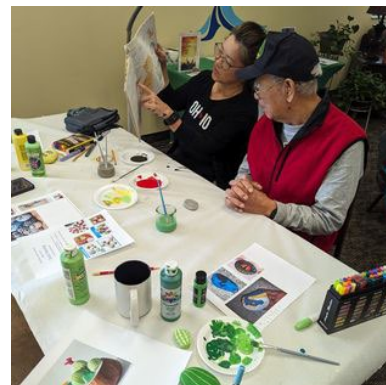

March Events & Activities at the Senior Center

Activities

At the Groveport Senior Center, we were all about creativity in March! As we began changing to Spring and all the flowers were beginning to sprout, we created beautiful spring flowers to hang on the wall.

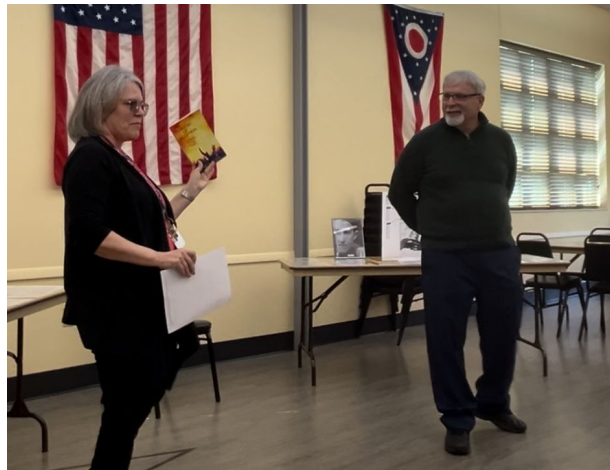

We also had rock painting every Tuesday morning as a drop in craft. Our members got very creative and really enjoyed painting rocks and sharing time together!

Author Visit

In March, we hosted another Author Visit. Our very own Harry (Skip) Reed came to talk to us about his new book “Tongues of Deception”. Skip decided to write a book after doing extensive genealogy work. Skip is not only a resident of the City of Groveport but he’s also an employee of the City, driving for Senior Transportation!

St. Patrick’s Day/PI day

Groveport Senior Center celebrated St. Patrick’s Day with a Patty’s day theme lunch. Our lunch also fell on National PI day so we asked our members to bring in homemade pies! We had over 30 different kinds of pies! The Center will continue this tradition!
