

Council Report – March 2025

Community Affairs Department – Jessica Wyke

We LOVE Our First Responders

55+ police officers and firefighters attended the 4th Annual First Responders Appreciation Luncheon. This year's superhero themed luncheon was catered by Hogs N Hunnies, who has been a fan-favorite since catering last year's luncheon. Hogs N Hunnies owner, Danielle Tipton, handmade and donated 5 dozen buckeyes to show her appreciation to first responders.

Irish Concert

A good time was had by all who attended the Irish Concert on Saturday, March 8. Attendees enjoyed music by The Ladies of Longford and a festive buffet of all GREEN foods! This event was at full capacity on the opening day of registration!

2024 Annual Report

The 2024 Annual Report & Community Guide went out to Groveport residents on March 1.

Personal Safety Awareness Seminar – March 29, 10am – 11am

We are very excited to offer the community a FREE Personal Awareness Seminar instructed by Lt. Josh Short! Whether you're out for a walk, heading to your car, or just running errands, knowing how to reduce distractions, stay confident, and trust your instincts can make all the difference.

INSTRUCTOR

When out and about, be aware of your surroundings and take simple precautions to reduce your risk of becoming a victim of crime. These preventative steps can go a long way to staying safe. Learn these tips and more at the Personal Safety Awareness Seminar!

- REDUCE DISTRACTIONS
Put down your phone and look up to be aware of your surroundings
- STAY CONFIDENT
Present yourself in a confident manner. Keep your head up and stay alert
- MAKE EYE CONTACT
Brief eye contact with strangers as they approach signals that you see them and can identify them, if needed
- TRUST YOUR INSTINCTS
If something doesn't feel right, it probably isn't

If you see something suspicious, call immediately so we can act fast. Dial the City of Groveport Police Dept. 614-525-3333
