

Council Report – November 14, 2014

Community Affair Director – Patty Storts

The holiday season is coming upon us and Town Hall is already decking the halls. Santa's North Pole is on display in the art gallery. This display is owned and set by residents Jeneane, Jerry and Mary Miles. Please take a few minutes and stop in and see this grand exhibit.

Town Hall and KidSpace is almost book to capacity with programs and party rentals until the end of the year. Town Hall room reservations are already being made for 2015. Even though we are making a few minor changes to hours of operation and charging a minimal fee for room rentals, residents understand and are not complaining at all about the fee.

Angela Martin, Activities Assistant for Crooked Alley KidSpace want me to tell Administration and Council that families attending her programs are very much appreciative of what KidSpace has to offer and enjoy each program that is offered.

If you have any question or concerns feel free to contact me.
