

Council Update – June 21

Community Affairs Department – Patty Storts, Director

Programs

It is great to have people coming back to Town Hall and Crooked Alley KidSpace to use and participant in programs. Our Line Dancers and Quilters are back doing what they do best.

Room Rentals

We are receiving many calls for room reservations. Rentals at Town Hall are very few because of the elevator being out of commission, but getting lots of rentals for Crooked Alley KidSpace.

Farmers Market

Groveport Farmer's Market will begin on June 29. We currently have 14 vendors. Some of these vendors will not be attending every week. We currently will have 8 – 10 vendors each week. The deadline for registration is June 18.

Red White and Kids Celebration parade will be on the first night of the Farmers Market. All children participating in the parade will receive a goody bag with lots of cool stuff in their bag. Each child who marches in the parade will receive a free icy from Kone Ice.

4th of July

The 4th of July mailer with all of the 4th of July activities was sent out on June 10 to all City residents and businesses. Parade registrations are gradually come in. The deadline for turning in parade registrations is June 25.
