IX. Reports

A. Mayor - Lance Westcamp

Mayor Westcamp thanked the City of Groveport and the Groveport Police Department for all the cards and prayers; his father-in-law passed away last week. You know you live in a great community when you get the support of the local people, the Police Department, the Administration and this Council. He and his family appreciated it, it meant a lot to them.

The Mayor talked about the goals for the Police Department. With the promotion of Sergeant Short to Lieutenant Short and the retirement of Brian Thompson, the department has two open sergeant positions. The City advertised in-house giving any interested officers the deadline of Saturday, May 15, 2021. Chief Adams, Captain Blevins, Lieutenant Murphy and Lieutenant Short will go through the assessments to narrow the applications down to 4 to 6 candidates to bring before the Mayor. Once the two sergeant positions are filled, two patrol positions will open up. The paperwork is ready for the City to hire the two patrol officer positions lateral. The Department has 15 applications at this time. It has been fourteen years since an officer has been promoted to sergeant. Officers applying for a sergeant position will be put through an assessment by a panel of 3 to 5 individuals from outside the Groveport Police Department who are typically Chiefs of Police or Commanders from larger departments. The panel will assess through practical exercises; e.g. one's ability to engage with the public, write a memo or a "that a boy" letter, and interacting with their officers in disciplinary and leadership matters. The exercises are based on the daily functions of a sergeant. Those sitting on the panel are given Groveport's sergeant job description and apply those duties to the assessment exercises.

B. Administrator - BJ King

Administrator BJ King congratulated Lieutenant Short on his promotion. With Casey Adams being named Chief and Joshua Short being promoted to Lieutenant there is a lot going on in the Police Department.

The City is ready to go with mosquito spraying. All the rain and rising temperatures will bring out the mosquitoes. The machines are ready to go and the City has all the supplies needed to start the program. The company the City buys its supplies from, Clark, asked if Groveport would be willing to use the garage facility for other communities to come through with their spraying machines to be calibrated. Brian Strayer and Walt Wagner are organizing the service with Clark. Mr. King will check with the spray supplier on what effect their product has on bees and get back to Council on the matter.

C. Chief of Police - Casey Adams

Chief Casey Adams thanked everyone for their support with all the transition going on at this time. Tonight is the Light Ohio Blue caravan event which former Chief Ralph Portier was named Grand Marshal. Chief Adams anticipates about 80 police vehicles coming through Groveport. Ralph Portier was astonished with the support shown at his retirement reception. All the changes in the Police Department has all the officers excited to finally see, (Casey Adams was the last officer to be promoted to sergeant 14 years ago), things moving in the department where they can now become leaders. Everyone is looking towards the future to who will take the Chief position when Chief Adams decides to leave down the road. Lt. Short will be a true asset mentoring and field training these new leaders. The Chief has been working with Mr. King and Personnel Director Sue Wadley on the promotional and hiring processes. He will not be able to do it all himself. Chief Adams needs Captain Blevins and both Lieutenant Murphy and Lieutenant Short. Chief Adams has gone around speaking to all the officers about what suggestions they might have to improve the department.

Mr. Cleary raised the subject of officer training. He asked Chief Adams to look into the possibility of the Groveport Police Department having training credits in our Ohio Peace Officer Training Academy account from the guest lectures and instructional time provided by Chief Ralph Portier and Sgt. Brian Thompson. When budgeting for next year, the Police Department will need to make sure funds are available for officer training. Chief Adams is working with Sue Wadley and Seth Bowers on keeping the officers up to date on CPR and bringing training opportunities to Groveport so the officers won't have to leave the City.

D. Director of Finance - Jason Carr

Finance Director Jason Carr reported that the City is scheduled to receive 1.1 million dollars through the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 which will be paid in two installments. Half in 2021 that should be received this month; The second payment to be received sometime in 2022. Today, the U.S. Department of Treasury released guidance on how the City can spend that money. Mr. Carr will work with Administrator King to determine the best use for those funds which would include loss of public revenue, infrastructure projects, streets, utilities (water, sewer and stormwater), items to address the general public health crisis and broadband. Administration expects to have a budget amendment sometime this year to identify how the City will use those dollars.

E. Director of Law - Kevin Shannon

Kevin Shannon was not present.

F. Development Director - Jeff Green

Development Director Jeff Green reported Administration has started the outreach visits to local businesses again. Mayor Westcamp, BJ King and Jeff Green visited with General Manager Glen Steinke with Franklin International. The same three visited Startech where Ted Wenger and Dana Garvey gave them a tour of the new facility. There were comments on how excited the company was to be here and they had a lot of good things to say about the City's Building Department. A meeting is scheduled with Cultivate, an organization the City has been talking to about business development. Cultivate is interested is working with Groveport as it relates to the second floors of the two new buildings in the downtown district. The Groveport Community Improvement Corporation (CIC) has a meeting tomorrow morning where the Board of Trustees will have to approve the leases for the three tenants for the new buildings. The CIC will be the landlord for the tenants on behalf of the City. Some employees of the companies are using the City's recreation facilities.

G. Council Members - Jean Ann Hilbert, Ed Dildine, Shawn Cleary, Becky Hutson, Scott Lockett and Chad Grashel

Mr. Grashel congratulated Chief Adams and Lieutenant Short on their promotions, both are well deserved.

Mr. Lockett also congratulated Chief Adams and Lieutenant Short, they have a very, very difficult job. The Police Department is something this Council takes a lot of pride in and the residents are well served. He agrees with Mr. Cleary that the department needs to stay on top of things like officer training. There is not much margin for error out there.

Mrs. Hutson congratulated Chief Adams and Lieutenant Short. It is a difficult world out there and she wished them luck. Mrs. Hutson thinks Groveport has the finest. Mr. Cleary noted it was a pleasure watching Casey Adams grow up and he knows there is a guy at the end of Elm Street who is awfully proud of him too. Mrs. Hilbert stated that our first responders are the ambassadors to our community. She is very proud of what they do. Addressing Mayor Westcamp, Mrs. Hilbert added anyone who knew his father-in-law is experiencing loss as well.

H. Clerk of Council - Ruthanne Sargus Ross

Clerk of Council Ruthanne Ross congratulated Lieutenant Short and Chief Adams. She started working for the City of Groveport all those years ago under a Chief Adams and chances are she will go out under a Chief Adams. Mrs. Ross only expects great things from them. They were very young when she started working with them in the Police Department.

I. Standing Committees

Cemetery Committee

Council Member Cleary reported that the podium is in place at the Groveport Cemetery and will be ready for the Memorial Day Ceremony. The new sidewalk will really help the community's senior citizens and veterans. The Cemetery Committee is working on some other issues at the cemetery that will be addressed. There is a lot of pride and history in that cemetery.

Memorial Day Ceremony

Administrator King announced that the ceremony will be at 1:30 p.m. at the Groveport Cemetery using the new podium. The event will be similar to last year. The Hometown Heroes banners will be on holders during the event and will be placed on the Main Street poles after the ceremony.

X. Other Business

None.
